Light Filled, Large And Perfectly Positioned

Whether you are looking to live in or let out, you can set yourself up for immediate lifestyle or financial success with this two-storey home, so close to transport, shops, parks and both primary and secondary schools.

Delivering efficient, effective zoned living, the upper level introduces a central balcony and three bedrooms sharing a spa bathroom, while the lower level includes powder room off the laundry, large lounge room and an even larger open plan living zone integrating the solid timber kitchen and opening to a generous paved entertainment area in a private rear.

Perfectly positioned, it is just moments to Westfield and the station either in the car or on the bus that's at the end of the street. Extras of ducted heating, cooling and garage, easy care tiled floors to living spaces, and the NBN connected make this a must see whatever your plans!
