Space, Style, Unique & Exclusive!

Dont let this rare opportunity pass you by! This is a unique and very appealing property in a first class position in a quiet street merely a few steps away from transport and shops. This building was originally a community hall which has been cleverly converted into a two bedroom warehouse-style conversion with very large open-plan living space and a private courtyard. Features include polished floor boards throughout, electric heating, electric oven and dishwasher, bright bathroom with separate toilet and laundry facilities. Plenty of street parking and just minutes away from High Street shops and other amenities, you will be impressed.
