Ready for you and whatever you do

Spacious proportions and a great location just around the corner from the tram, shops and cafes of Miller Street and a short walk from Strettle Street Reserve add to the appeal of this first floor apartment. Freshly painted and with new carpets, it will suit buyers looking to secure their real estate future in an area which is rapidly gaining appreciation from home owners and investors alike. Astute purchasers will have the options of sitting back and collecting rental income, moving in and enjoying all the lifestyle benefits on offer, freshening up a touch or completely renovating the two bedrooms, living meals, practical kitchen and bathroom currently on offer. With the convenience of internal laundry facilities and car park on title it presents an enticing opportunity in an exciting locale.

Price: $350,000-$385,000 BIR
