Not To Be Missed !!!

Take advantage of this two bedroom house while it lasts. Featuring two very spacious living areas comprising electric heating and two glass double doors which separate the living areas, creating the potential to turn one of them into a bedroom, two bedrooms and a very well maintained kitchen/dining area. Also features a large drive way with a single garage. Located between High Street and Victoria Street this house has the convenience of being on a main road with transport and shops, with the silence of a suburban home.
