Just north of Bell Street is this updated three bedroom family home offering a large lounge room, three generous sized bedrooms serviced by a central bathroom offering shower over bath and vanity. The separate kitchen is newly renovated with ample cupboard and bench space plus gas cooking facilities. The separate laundry and toilet lead to a backyard that will ensure you have the best veggie patch in the north and a great place for the kids to kick the footy. Additional features include split system heating/cooling, WWC carpet, newly painted and a side driveway to a lock up garage. Ideally located close to Northland Shopping Centre, Thornbury High School, Penders Grove Primary School and all modes of public transport.
