This exceptional terrace home will spoil you with its period appeal of high ceilings, ornate features, polished timber floorboards yet offers all the creature comforts of modern living. Off the hallway are three bedrooms complete with built in robes, the central bathroom offers shower, bath and vanity with a separate toilet and European laundry. With stainless steel appliances, dishwasher and exceptional bench and storage space the kitchen will become a hub as it overlooks the vast open plan meals and living area leading to a private and low maintenance courtyard. Adding to this appealing home is ducted heating, storage shed, off street parking and within walking distance to the #86 and #11 trams, Thornbury train station, High Street shopping strip and within the Northcote High School
