This one bedroom apartment delivers an affordable opportunity to secure a position in one of Thornbury's most sought after streets. Surprisingly spacious and filled with natural light, it offers the welcome bonus of a sizable, private courtyard that doubles its living spaces in summer. Inside the generous open plan living features an updated kitchen with stainless steel appliances while the single bedroom features an ensuite style bathroom large enough to include bath and laundry facilities. Also providing an undercover carspace. 100 metres from the bus stop and milk bar, just around the corner from Penders Park and 750 meters from High Street and all the benefits that brings, it offers an ideal lifestyle in a perfect position.
