Desirable living, Desirable location

It's not often you discover such a superbly placed new townhouse, and this impressive tri-level two bedroom residence delivers more than you might dare to hope for.

Well-proportioned and open, this townhouse offers open plan living with a second living/study area downstairs, stainless steel gas appliances and sliding glass door access to an outdoor balcony/entertaining area.

Sunlit bedrooms include double built-in robe to the main bedroom, 2 bathrooms, Split-system to the main living area and upstairs mezzanine, remote-controlled front gate and low maintenance garden accompany this residence.

And all of this within a short walk to the Heidelberg shops, transport and parks.
