Sunny, Spacious And Its Own Street Frontage

Comfortable, casual, easy care living are the hallmarks of this single level home, a relaxed stroll from the tram on Plenty Road and all the shopping, dining and entertainment benefits of Northland. Set behind an established garden and enjoying its own street frontage, this refurbished retreat features light filled, north facing open plan living sweeping around to a meals area on the edge of an updated kitchen complete with stainless steel range. The tastefully rejuvenated bathroom serves two robed, double bedrooms. The laundry leads through to a low maintenance courtyard with plenty of space to entertain friends, while a large shed complements the garage. A perfect starter, investment or downsizers nest, it includes timber floors throughout, gas heating and split system heating and cooling.

Price: Sold for $472,000
