Family Classic Ready For A Makeover

With Bundoora Square shops, cafes and restaurants, along with the tram for the easy trip to the CBD all at one end of the street and Norris Park and the primary school at the other, this three bedroom home epitomises comfort and convenience, position and potential.

Primed for a contemporary update, an extension into the deep rear yard are all possible thanks to the good size allotment, (stca) this currently comfortable classic home introduces formal living, family meals, kitchen with updated cabinetry and a functional central bathroom.

Completed with a garage and a separate lockable storeroom, other enticing extras include timber floors, gas heating and air conditioner, this is a very inviting possibility for first home buyers and developers alike.

Price: Sold for $570,000
