

4 Bradman Terrace Epping, VIC

Great Home? Great Investment? You Decide!

This meticulously maintained three bedroom, two bathroom home set among low maintenance gardens that include a sun soaked paved outdoor area, welcomes all who come to visit.

Presented in as new condition on the high side of the street, it is around the corner from acres of council parklands that provide a super view of the city skyline, and within just a few minutes of the station and Westfield.

The refined living room complements a light and bright family meals area over looked by a timber kitchen featuring stainless steel appliances and family sized benches and storage options foe easy meal times.

Desired extra's of ducted heating, cooling and vacuum, double garage, and the economic benefits of solar power add to this fantastic opportunity what will not be around for long. Call now to find out if this is the one for you!
