Freshly refurbished, this two bedroom apartment is ready for you to settle down in! This second floor low-maintenance property has been freshly painted and re-carpeted throughout, brand new heating and cooling system, boasting natural light through the living room window. The two of many highlights of this property would be the newly installed kitchen ready for you to cook up a storm in, and the built in robes in both generous sized bedrooms. I haven't mentioned the amazing location; close to both Miller Street shops and tram line yet still in a very quiet pocket of Thornbury. The block has off street parking available for one car and undercover communal entryway. The price is too good to last- so get in sooner rather than later, or you may miss out!

Price: $330 per week
