CLASSIC CALIFORNIAN CHARM

This beautifully presented Californian Bungalow combines country charm with a contemporary two-level design. Step beyond the fruit filled front yard into this warm and charismatic home, only minutes' walk from cafes, train station, and Preston Market. The warm and inviting interior boasts three generous bedrooms (including extra-large upstairs master with contemporary bathroom), each with built-in robes, stunning central bathroom, stylish timber kitchen with stainless steel appliances, adjoining dining area, spacious light-filled living room and laundry with ample storage. Elegant French doors open out to a secluded landscaped garden and entertaining area. The meandering pathway through this sustainable and productive sanctuary leads to the versatile detached studio / home office or guest room. Other features include heating and cooling throughout, open fire place, solar hot water, alarm, polished timber floors, under-stair storeroom and two-car driveway.
