The moment you open the ornate lead light door you will fall in love with this period home which offers all the modern comforts with a real homely feel. The lounge and dining area is complemented by an ornamental fire place and leads through to the updated timber kitchen which offers an integrated dishwasher and gas cooktop with stainless steel oven and great storage space. Two double bedrooms (master with built in robes) and the third single bedroom or study are serviced by a central, modern bathroom with shower, toilet and vanity. The second living area leads out to a decked area. Additional features include solar hot water, ducted heating, split system, high ceilings, polished floor boards in the living areas, separate laundry, off street parking and storage shed with shelving units. All this and only moments away from Miller Street shops, the #11

Price: $680 Per Week
