Set among the trees you will be delighted with this period home and its ideal location, walking distance to shops, transport, schools and Pender Park.

Off the entry hall there are two good size bedrooms both with BIR and one with access to a private front porch setting. The lounge room has a gas heater with adjoining dining room or 4th bedroom with an air conditioning unit. Walk through to the kitchen/meals area including gas cooking and plenty of space for table and chairs. To the rear of the property you will find a further bonus room and the third bedroom with BIR. The central bathroom with shower over bath completes the flexible layout. The rear north facing garden is just as pretty with a paved area for entertaining under the large shady tree. Features include polished boards, air
