This renovated one bedroom first floor apartment is situated adjacent to serene parklands, walking distance to St Georges Rd tram, close to the bustling High Street cafes, restaurants and City train line. The apartment is gracious in size offering open-plan living area with north facing balcony, brand new kitchen with stainless steel appliances and breakfast bar, overlooking the living area with heating and plenty of natural light. The large bedroom with BIR has access to the balcony and the adjoining bathroom comes complete with shower over bath and laundry facilities. In addition, the apartment has new flooring throughout and comes with off-street parking for one vehicle. It's quiet location in a block of only 6 and amazing location will impress.
