This modern villa is perfect with its generous design, quality features and convenient location. Filled with northerly light, the home's gleaming interior comprises two bedrooms (both with built-in robes) and stylish central bathroom. Well-appointed kitchen with tiled splashbacks and stainless steel cooking appliances complements the open-plan living/dining area leading out to a large and private rear courtyard complete with undercover patio and handy storage shed. Add to this split-system heating and cooling, solar/gas hot water service, European laundry and more. Complete with off-street parking space, it's walking distance to Thomastown Station, close to High Street shopping precinct, primary and secondary schools, easy Ring Road access.
