This beautifully appointed first floor apartment has been fully refurbished with a definitive eye for designer detail. Blending sleek contemporary style with modern flair and superior finishes. 700 meters from all the benefits of High Street, including the tram to the city for work or play, it is even closer to parks for that early morning jog. The interior, light and bright thanks to a wall of picture windows, features a sparkling white kitchen with stainless steel appliances, living room with inverter system for year round comfort and a bedroom with fitted robes. The contemporary bathroom offers the convenience of a full size bath. With undercover car park and security

Price: $295 Per Week
