Take Advantage Of Exciting Scope

This mid-century home is set to provide astute buyers with immediate convenience, comfort and flexibility along with a broad range of options. The original but far from ordinary interior introduces three spacious bedrooms served by the family bathroom and complemented by a study, ideal for those that have embraced working from home. A lounge, separate dining, eat-in kitchen, rumpus and a covered alfresco area provide more than enough options for indoor and outdoor living and entertaining. An easy walk to the station, Broadway and delights of High, Spring and Edwardes Streets and with the bus going past the door, it offers outstanding potential to renovate, rebuild or redevelop (all stca) and profit from the position and proportions.
