

93 St David Street Thornbury, VIC

Generous Space and Great Location!

Various living zones and a 3-minute walk to High Street's flourishing cafe culture underpin the exciting allure of this solid-brick home. Enjoy the classic comfortable spaces, and extend as your family grows in a lifestyle address of significant appeal. Close to Penders Park, Thornbury Primary School, Thornbury High School and trams.

Swing the door open and timber finishes throughout add compelling warmth to the delightful interior, boasting three genuinely large bedrooms filled with sunshine, built-in robes and sharing a sizable central bathroom, ducted heating, air conditioning, separate laundry with washing machine, storage area and a remote control garage add to the outstanding appeal. You will love gathering in the living area destined for relaxed TV nights and enjoy hearty meals in the dining room overlooking the picturesque streetscape. A functional kitchen with a stainless steel four-burner cooktop and Chef oven flows into a second lounge room or sun-infused study space. A large paved courtyard shaded with established trees promises alfresco enjoyment.

Price: $660 per week

Love & Co

inspections.thornbury@lovere.co