AESTHETICALLY PLEASING

A modern townhouse living experience where maintenance is minimal and elegance is important, 12 Portrait Way more than lives up to its name with its picture-perfect setting on a tranquil lush street!

Two opulent bedrooms, one with a double shower and the other with a built-in robe plus ensuite, are located on the ground level. A study nook is cleverly incorporated into the light-filled living room upstairs before you move on to the dining area, which is managed by a contemporary kitchen with SMEG stainless steel appliances. All of this continues to a lovely outdoor deck and balcony that offers enjoyable outdoor entertainment possibilities.

A separate bathroom on the first floor, gas ducted heating, split system air conditioning, solar panels, a storeroom, and a remote garage with extra storage space concealed beneath the stairwell are all desired extras.

Price: $450 per week
