

20C Jones Street Thornbury, VIC

As New And Beautifully Designed

Be the one to call this recently constructed town house home, ensuring the utmost comfort and luxury with every need met.

Situated in an ideal location, walk into the property and be blown away by the breathtaking light filled living/dining area with access to the generous sized courtyard. With the kitchen featuring a 5 burner stove, dish washer, stone bench tops and plenty of cupboard space, all meals will be cooked to perfection with the help of the best appliances at your fingertips. Also included on the ground floor is a split system allowing for complete climate control to the lower level, separate laundry and powder room.

Walk upstairs to find yourself in the retreat area allowing the possibility of a work from home study space or second living area providing complete relaxation and serenity. Adjoining to this is the two generous sized bedrooms both with built in robes, split systems and an elegantly designed shared bathroom completing this magnificent property.

Price: $600 Per Week

Ingrid Rijk

Ingrid Rijk

inspections.thornbury@lovere.com.au inspections.thornbury@lovere.com.au