

117 Henty Street Reservoir, VIC

Clever Blend Of The Classic And The Contemporary

A clever blend of rendered surfaces and timeless cream bricks creates enviable street appeal in this home, delivering the perfect fit for those starting out, slowing down or seeking a set-and-forget investment.

Classic elements, including timber floors, decorative cornice and picture rails, lead a list of desired enhancements to an interior introducing sleek contemporary touches.

Bathed in northern sun, the large lounge with an open fireplace sweeps around to the dining room served by a Smeg and Bosch equipped, stone-finished kitchen. Updated with floor-to-ceiling tiles, a freestanding bath, a frameless shower and a stone vanity, the luxury bathroom is shared by two robed bedrooms.
