

133 Keon Street Thornbury, VIC

Charming Thornbury Residence

Located on Keon Street in the heart of Thornbury, this 3-bedroom home exudes timeless charm. The interior features carpeted flooring throughout the hallway, bedrooms and living areas, adding a cozy touch. The spacious living area includes an electric log fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere, perfect for all your entertaining needs. The kitchen is a standout, equipped with both gas and electric cooking, a brand-new oven and timber cabinetry that offers ample storage space, all illuminated by an abundance of natural light.

For your comfort, the home features reverse cycle heating/cooling, ensuring a pleasant temperature year-round. Further, the third bedroom includes an electric heater, making it perfect for those warmer months.

This charming residence has also been freshly painted throughout and includes a sunroom perfect for use as a home office, a bathroom with a separate bathtub and shower, built-in wardrobes in all three bedrooms, roller shutters externally and a spacious backyard that's ideal for entertaining guests and growing your own produce. Off-street parking for two vehicles adds to the convenience. Thornbury's vibrant community and convenient amenities are right at your doorstep, making this classic charm a not-to-be-missed opportunity.
