

2/59 Keon Street Thornbury, VIC

Simply Stunning

Cleverly reimagined, completely renovated throughout this stylish apartment exude boutique appeal and seconds to buzzing Miller Street. Showcasing sleek Scandinavian interior design with premium touches including tundra grey limestone surfaces, durable engineered oak flooring and expansive northerly courtyard. A private entry leads to the open plan living/kitchen areas with practical and appealing spaces, a reverse cycle split system heating and cooling unit provides comfort, impressive kitchen with European appliances, integrated dishwashers and cupboards in abundance. Well lit and restful bedroom with built-in robes and double doors leading to a private courtyard lined with greenery and timber deck, The chic combined bathroom and laundry with relaxing rainfall shower is well located next to the bedroom and off the living area is a study or small second bedroom. Strong security takes the form of a pedestrian gate with intercom and remote controlled vehicle gate, and an allocated off street parking space. With only seven residences in total, the scale of the site is attractively intimate, and the position puts you within a short walk of the shops, trams, cafes and restaurants of the lively Miller Street/Gilbert Road precinct, including The Merri Clan bar/cafe and Chumanchu Vietnamese restaurant, and only a stroll to parkland by the popular Merri Creek Trail.
