Boasting a prime Thornbury fringe location, its own street frontage and stylishly fitted interiors this contemporary single bedroom plus study townhouse sets the standard in low maintenance living. Supremely modern and near new this inviting home makes a smart first impression with hardwood floors through sunlit open-plan living that features a sleek soft-close CaesarStone kitchen and opens to a delightful balcony that basks in northern light. The bedroom with built-in robes is serviced by a stylish bathroom complete with stone topped vanity and frameless oversized shower while comfort continues with a separate study, heating/cooling, Euro laundry and garage with remote and internal access plus off-street parking. This bright property enjoys easy access to Plenty Road and High Street's range of cafes and trams, local shopping, central Preston and its iconic market, and Hayes and Pender's parks, putting lifestyle lovers at the heart of it all.
