

26 Ethel Street Thornbury, VIC

A Beautiful Home, Rich In Character And Full Of Promise

Every detail of this enchanting one hundred-year-old home has been carefully considered and impeccably finished to create a beautiful designer home. Located in a well-connected neighbourhood, just minutes from local cafes, schools, parklands and with Thornbury station right across the street. Be wowed by the airy open feel to the interior spaces with soaring ceilings, crisp white walls, engineered timber floors and modern comforts throughout. A vast open plan kitchen, meals and living at the rear, overlooks a stunning paved yard with lovely gardens surrounds, perfect for entertaining. The striking kitchen incorporates a long stone island bench ideal for multi-use entertaining, there's plenty of storage including a walk-in pantry, as well as Neff double ovens, induction cooktop, double dishwashers and soft close cabinetry. Sleeping accommodation includes three bedrooms with plush carpets and built in robe storage, serviced by two elegant bathrooms and a family laundry. Additional features are, ducted heating, cassette reverse cycle cooling off Wi-Fi, quality window furnishings, alarm system, double glazed windows, stained glass feature windows and doors, ample storage and a rear garage.

Price: SOLD

Theo Angelopoulos Graham Love

0414 813 160
sales10@lovere.com.au

0418 534 450
graham.l@lovere.com.au

