An Original Beauty For The Family With Vision

There's a few choices to be made with this surprisingly versatile brick veneer home, that's been lovingly maintained. You have the choice of enjoying this current-day picture of comfort or enhancing the interior with a modern touch to reflect your stylish taste (STCA). Zoned living sees three bedrooms, a bright bathroom and family sized laundry lined up in one wing, well out of sight, out of sound and out of the way of the social heart of the home. A welcoming separate lounge and open-plan kitchen and dining area offers plenty of space to dine and then unwind, while a rear door provides access to an expansive rear yard. Fire up the BBQ whenever a crowd gathers because beyond the entertainers' pergola is a sprawling yard, as well as a secure garage. Added highlights also include heating, evaporative cooling, alarm system, external window shutters, tiled floors, carpets and an outstanding location close to schools, parklands, local shopping hubs and transportation.

Price: $820,000 - $855,000
