Classic Family Living On A Generous Allotment

Positioned in a quiet and well-established pocket of Thomastown, this inviting home presents an excellent opportunity for families, first home buyers or investors seeking space, comfort and future potential. Offering a functional and well considered layout, the home comprises three well-sized bedrooms, each providing comfortable accommodation and flexibility for growing households.

A generous living area welcomes you upon entry, creating a warm and relaxing space ideal for everyday living and entertaining. The adjoining kitchen and meals area is practical in design, offering ample storage and workspace while comfortably catering to family dining.

Set on a substantial allotment of 715m2 (approx.), the property boasts a large backyard that provides outstanding potential for outdoor entertaining, further improvements or future extension, subject to relevant approvals. The expansive outdoor space is complemented by a garage or workshop, perfect for additional storage, hobbies or trades.
