Packed With Potential In A Sought After Pocket

Positioned in a quiet and well-established pocket of Epping, this inviting home offers a practical floorplan, generous outdoor spaces, and outstanding vehicle accommodation, making it an excellent opportunity for families, first home buyers, or savvy investors. Filled with natural light throughout, the home combines comfortable everyday living with plenty of room to entertain both inside and out.

The well-appointed kitchen overlooks the meals area and connects effortlessly to the spacious living room, creating a functional layout for the whole family. Three well-proportioned bedrooms are serviced by a central bathroom with a separate toilet, while a separate laundry adds further convenience.

Step outside to discover a large undercover entertaining area, a generous backyard, and exceptional parking options including a garage, carport, and additional off-street parking, perfect for those needing extra space for vehicles, trailers, or hobbies.
