Classic Charm, Spacious Living & Exciting Future Potential

Set behind a classic brick facade, 21 Don Street presents an immediately appealing family home with generous proportions, comfortable living and plenty of outdoor space.

The well-maintained three-bedroom home offers a practical floorplan with spacious bedrooms, a light-filled living and dining area, and a generous modern kitchen providing plenty of bench and storage space. The contemporary bathroom is well appointed with floor-to-ceiling tiling and a deep freestanding bath, while a separate laundry adds further convenience.

At the rear, the expansive backyard provides an outstanding setting for children to play, entertaining with family and friends, or simply enjoying the peace and privacy that comes with such a substantial parcel of land.
