Peaceful Seclusion, State Of The Art Sophistication

A home of lavish beauty, this custom designed two-storey masterpiece boasts exquisite craftsmanship, incredible open plan dimensions and high-end elements in a peaceful neighbourhood, walking distance in the Westgarthtown German precinct and Kalara Close Park. Designed for the 21st century family with a balance of luxury and functionality, the home provides three sumptuous bedrooms with two stylish bathrooms on the upper level. The ground floor showcases a separate living room, separate bathroom and an open plan kitchen, dining and living precinct that is adorned with engineered timber floors and contemporary fixtures and fittings. The kitchen is a showstopper with a stone island bench and stone splashbacks, as well as contemporary appliances and ample storage. The interior spaces seamlessly connect with the outdoors, featuring a deck and lawns that provides easy care space for the family. Enjoying a long list of luxuries, including ducted heating/cooling, high ceilings, large, double-glazed windows, plush carpets, excellent storage, and a double remote garage with internal and rear access, plus an exposed aggregate driveway. Positioned within close proximity to public transportation, primary and secondary schools, shopping hubs and local amenities.
