Welcome

As we welcome 2025, it's the perfect time to reflect on the property market's performance in the final quarter of 2024. The market has shown resilience and adaptability, with some areas experiencing steady growth while others have seen notable shifts. Economic conditions, buyer demand, and changing priorities have all played a role in shaping the market, but overall, it has continued to evolve as we head into the new year.

On a national level, the property market saw a 4.9% increase in dwelling values over the year, adding around $38,000 to the median home value. However, December marked the first monthly decline in almost two years, with a 0.1% drop, pointing to a cooling trend. This is largely due to high mortgage rates and increased housing supply, which has impacted buyer activity. Supply shortages in certain regions have also put upward pressure on prices, while buyer demand remains strong in many areas, despite affordability challenges. According to CoreLogic, interest rate pressures and rising costs are continuing to influence market dynamics.

In the regional markets, while cities like Sydney and Brisbane have shown some softening,

Perth has displayed strong resilience, with steady growth in dwelling values. Across Australia, regional areas continue to draw interest, with buyers looking for more affordable options and lifestyle benefits outside the city.

Focusing on Victoria, the market has remained steady overall, with Melbourne's dwelling values recording a 0.7% decrease in December and a 3.0% annual decline. However, regional areas continue to see strong demand, as more people seek the balance of affordability and lifestyle. The median dwelling value in Melbourne stands at $923,422 for houses and $610,622 for units, reflecting a market that still holds strong interest, particularly in established suburbs and emerging growth corridors. The Victorian property market remains stable, presenting a good opportunity for sellers in the current climate.

If you've been considering selling, now is a great time to act. With buyer demand still strong and prices holding steady, the current market conditions in Victoria are favourable for sellers. Whether you're ready to make the move or just want to explore your options, now could be the ideal time to get the ball rolling.

Looking back at Q4, our Darebin offices saw excellent results, including the sale of 22 Livingstone Parade, Preston for an impressive $1,151,000, well above expectations, and 152 Sherbourne Road, Montmorency, which sold for $930,000, reflecting strong market demand. These standout sales highlight the strong potential for great results in today's market. With Love & Co's personalised approach, we can help you achieve similar success, guiding you every step of the way to ensure the best possible outcome.

What our clients are saying

"Eric was a great agent to work with, a true gentleman, very calm and knowledgeable. He provided exceptional guidance, from how to style the property to reach the most suited buyers to estimated value, which was accurate. He knows the market well and was able to negotiate a price we were very happy with. He kept us informed after each open with potential buyer feedback. We ended up with a very successful campaign and sold in much less time than anticipated. Highly recommend Eric."

Vendor

"We have been extremely happy with the service provided by Kannan at Love & Co Reservoir for the sale of our property. Kannan provided clear and prompt communication, he was transparent and honest about setting our expectations and comprehensively explained the process involved with selling our home. We bought our first home through Kannan and have now recently sold with him. We have experienced both sides of buying and selling and were pleased that Kannan could make it as less stressful as possible."

Vendor

"Working with Bijan was an absolute pleasure. He was incredibly professional, calm and genuine throughout the entire process. Bijan wasn't pushy or over salesy. He listened to what I wanted and focused on providing without any gimmicks or pressure. His authenticity and honesty really stood out, and I felt confident I was in good hands the whole time. Thanks, Bijan!"

Vendor

"Illia helped us to sell our parent's home. We were very happy with Illia's work, he demonstrated a strong work ethic and professionalism. He went out of his way to meet our expectations. My family and I were very happy with his reliability and communication throughout the campaign. We were satisfied with the sale result as we achieved a record price for the area.

We highly recommend Illia to anyone wanting to deal with Love realestate, as he is a trustworthy agent with a warm and caring nature."
